

The True Gentleman

The True Gentleman is the man whose conduct proceeds from good will and an acute sense of propriety, and whose self-control is equal to all emergencies;

Who does not make the poor man conscious of his poverty, the obscure man of his obscurity, or any man of his inferiority or deformity;

Who is himself humbled if necessity compels him to humble another;

Who does not flatter wealth, cringe before power, or boast of his own possessions or achievements;

Who speaks with frankness but always with sincerity and sympathy;

Whose deed follows his word;

Who thinks of the rights and feelings of others, rather than his own;

And who appears well in any company, a man with whom honor is sacred and virtue safe.
