The PK-5 report card measures a student's mastery of grade level standards.

Communicates specific growth in all content areas.

Not just a letter or number.

Feedback on learner profile growth:
- Measures grade level specific behaviors to support future readiness.
- Measures social emotional growth.

Additional information can be found on the GISD website.

Benefits of standards-based report card:

For students:
- High Priority Learning Standards define what students should know and be able to do.
- Students are offered multiple opportunities and ways to demonstrate proficiency.
- Specific feedback on progress helps build self-esteem, self-efficacy, and motivation for students.

For parents:
- Parents are aware of exactly what their child knows, is able to do, and next steps for progress.
- Parents know how to support their child at home.
- Parents are empowered to increase their child's confidence and help their student set goals.
