How to Access Student Profile Information from within the Gradebook

To access an individual student’s profile information from within the gradebook, click on the Gender (M, F) to the left of the student’s name.

From the Student’s Profile page, contact information for the student, student alert indicators as well as detailed information on the student is available.